

Please, please, please, please do NOT change the Wisconsin No Call policy. I get enough banking offers and other junk via snail mail. Prior to signing up to be on the WI No Call List I always screened my calls because so many telemarketers bothered me. My friends and relatives hated that I screened my calls. Now I don't need to screen my calls because I receive very few telemarketing calls. I love it! Thank you.